

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, kidney, bladder, uric acid troubles and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work, in private practice, among the helpless too poor to purchase relief and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty cent and dollar sizes are sold by all good druggists.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

THE GREAT FAMILY MEDICINE

Thedford's Black-Draught comes nearer regulating the entire system and keeping the body in health than any other medicine made. It is always ready in any emergency to treat ailments that are frequent in any family, such as indigestion, biliousness, colds, diarrhoea, and stomach aches.

Thedford's Black-Draught is the standard, never-failing remedy for stomach, bowel, liver and kidney troubles. It is a cure for the domestic ills which so frequently summon the doctor. It is as good for children as it is for grown persons. A dose of this medicine every day will soon cure the most obstinate case of dyspepsia or constipation, and when taken as directed brings quick relief.

DANVILLE, ILL., Dec. 23, 1902.
Thedford's Black-Draught has been our family doctor for five years and we want no other. When any of us feel badly we take a dose and are all right in twelve hours. We have spent lots of money for doctor bills, but get along just as well with Black-Draught. IRA H. BADER.

Ask your dealer for a package of Thedford's Black-Draught and if he does not keep it send 25c. to The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn. and a package will be mailed to you.

Suffering Will Not Help Your Disease, but Will Weaken Your Nerves.

Folks who think it is better to bear pain than soothe it—are wrong. Old-fashioned doctors used to say it was better, because they had nothing with which to ease pain but dangerous, heart-paralyzing drugs.

But now, that a safe remedy has been found, Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills, it is wrong to suffer, for nothing can be gained but weakened nerves.

A safe rule to remember is: When in pain, take an Anti-Pain Pill.

This will soothe your quivering nerves. Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills relieve pain by restoring the natural secretions, in which they differ from opium and similar narcotic drugs, which relieve pain by checking the action of the glands.

They are sure and harmless, and are the latest medical treatment for the cure of Headache, Neuralgia, Backache, Rheumatism, Dizziness, Toothache, Stomachache, Menstrual (Monthly) Pains. Also nerve irritations like Sea-Sickness, Car-Sickness, Sleeplessness, Indigestion, etc.

Pleasant to take, quick in results.

"I have used Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills for sick, nervous headache, and have received the best results. I heartily recommend their curative properties for they are successful."—REV. RAY A. WATROS, D. D., Iowa City, Ia. Sold by druggists, at 25c. Money back if first box does not help. Never sold in bulk.

The Democratic Prayer.

O Lord of Joshua, Jacob and Jim Jones! hear us, we beseech Thee, in this, our hour of political bewilderment, for we are tangled up in the calf ropes of democratic deception and are about to break our own necks. We are scattered worse than a flock of timid toads after a hail storm. We have an aching void in the pit of our stomachs which nothing but the fat of office can satisfy. We are badly scared, physically undone and morally rotten. We have floundered around, and spit up, and busted up and run together and fused and fought and foamed and fizzled till we can't tell whether we are stepping in the footprints of Tom Jefferson or following the dictates of the devil. We don't know where we are at, where we came from or whither we goeth. All is darkness and gloom. We are cast down in the dark valley of humiliation. On our right are the towering summits of national progress. On our left are the briny waters of democratic dissolution. Before us, in plain view, are encamped the pesky republicans in the enjoyment of official bliss, and just behind us loom up our own records which bring shame to our faces and a gripping pain in our bowels every time we look back. In this pitiable and awful condition, we come to Thee for succor.

We have attempted to scare them away from the offices, but every time we try it we get hurt. We confess they are too much for us. Their numbers are like the sands of the sea.

In campaign years our editors write stirring appeals to the boys; our candidates go tearing over the country talking democratic orations and speeches, and we all fairly bust our galluses urging the people to stand by our party and save the country, while all the time the pesky "rads" go on sawing wood and don't say anything. Every campaign we have our hopes lifted high. We rip and snort and rear and charge and rave and bawl, because our hosts seem invincible, but oh, Lord! on election day it just seems to rain republicans, and we come out of the fight at the little end of the horn and feeling worse than sheepkilling dogs. Lord! we confess we have been very wicked. We acknowledge having said millions of things that were not exactly true, and having done thousands of things that would shame the devil. But, Lord, it was the best we could do under the circumstances. We know that Tom Jefferson would not have worn a red shirt, stuffed a ballot box, thrown rotten eggs at republican speakers, nor voted a dead nigger. But, O Lord, you know circumstances alter cases. Jefferson didn't have such a mighty host of republicans to fight as we have. He never dreamed of the size of the job we would have on our hands. Argument was all that was needed in his day. But the republicans have multiplied on the face of the earth till it requires all the stealing, red shirts, slander, lies, intimidation and trickery that we can command, to give us any chance, and then we get kicked off the face of the earth. Lord, what are we to do? We know we are unworthy to ask anything of Thee. We feel ashamed of ourselves.

Only a few months ago we said President McKinley was a dangerous man to be at the head of the government. We called him an emperor, a panderer to the trusts, a trampler upon the constitution, a tool of the plutocrats. Today we acknowledge we lied. We, with all the world, know he was a gentleman, a patriot and a christian. We are sorry he is dead. We are sorry we said so many hateful things about him. But, O Lord, we promise not to be so wicked any more, if Thou wilt only help us beat the republicans one time more.

Lord, we are in sore need of an issue. We haven't got anything. Some of us want free silver and some of us don't. Some are eager to make imperialism the issue, and some want trusts. Then there are some of us who are lugging that old issue of low tariff back into the ring. Lord, we confess, with a mighty confess, that we don't know what we want. We trotted in our low tariff one time and Lord, Thou knowest what an awful mess we made of things.

Sometimes we think we want to expand nationally, and then we shudder at the thought. We know that this country is already too big for us to manage. The republicans seem to have the democratic party by the tail and a down hill pull. But, Lord, may it not always be thus. Help us to smite them with a terrible smite, so that every postoffice in the land shall be ours. Help us this once and we will not bother Thee again as long as the salaries hold out.

But, O Lord! if we are not of praying grounds: if the gates of mercy are shut against us; if the account is closed, and the book sealed; if Thou canst give us no guiding star to lead us to victory; if we have sinned away our day of grace; if we are everlastingly beyond the pale of Thy sheltering hand, and Thou wilt not help us, Lord, please don't help the republicans, but just stand by and You'll see one of the confoundest fights You ever witnessed, for we are bound to do something and that pretty soon. Amen.—(From The Yellow Jacket.)
